Bus Tour – Richmond NASCAR Race – August 15 – 17, 2025

Bus Departs: Willow Street, Lancaster, York, PA OR Meet us at the hotel.

Approximate Departure Times: Willow Street 8:15, Lancaster 9:15, and York 9:45 AM

Richmond International Raceway, now known as Richmond Raceway, is a .75-mile D-shaped short track located in Richmond, Virginia. It's famous for its high-banked turns and unique layout, which makes for tight, fast racing that feels like a superspeedway but with a lot more intensity and close-quarter action. The track's compact size leads to plenty of side-by-side racing, often resulting in dramatic finishes and occasional bumps and spins as drivers jostle for position.

Since its opening in 1953, Richmond has become a fan favorite, hosting both day and night races. The night races are especially popular because the lights and the track's fast action create an electric atmosphere. The track's short layout makes it difficult to pass, so strategy and handling are key for drivers.

Richmond Raceway is known for its unpredictable moments, especially late-race restarts, making it one of the most exciting stops on the NASCAR schedule. It's often called "The Action Track" because of the non-stop action and dramatic finishes that keep fans on the edge of their seats. <https://www.richmondraceway.com>
